

Kroatien / Krk / Baska, "Pyramidi" -

"WHITE PILLAR 3+"

✦ 1st. ascent: Thomas Behm 6/2014

✦ Char.: Short, partly nice alpine climbing high above Baska and the blue sea.
 A very beautiful 1st. pitch with white erosions, in the upper part more "alpine" - not always solide rock - to a nice top.
 Protection is very sparse, it's also not possible to use friends etc., so you have to be controlled.

✦ Access: From Baska / Zadar few metres direction "BAG", then without trail to the right and directly (maybe before the small wood turn right and then left again) to the formation of "Pyramidi" and the bottom of "THE BLUE LIGHT". (you'll see the bolts). "The White Pillar" starts 40m. to the left and a little bit higher (15-20 min.)

✦ Descent: Turn left and you'll reach the begin of the route without difficulties.
